2025 La Marea Kristy Vineyard Albariño - 12.5% The coastal breezes off of Monterey Bay along with precise winemaking make this one of the best California Albariños we have ever tasted. Three separate grape picks were utilized to achieve complexity and balance. Lemon zest, white nectarines and minerals with a zippy and lingering finish. Great with seafood or grilled vegetables.

2025 Lucy Pico Blanco - 13.5% The Pisoni family is famous for making great Pinot Noir but their whites are equally delicious. 70% Pinot Gris and 30% Pinot Blanc are fermented with native yeasts in neutral barrels to gain depth and texture. A nose of lemon blossoms and ripe pears is followed by a palate of apricots, golden apples and honeysuckle. Pair with richer seafood dishes or roast chicken.

2022 Ghostwriter Pinot Noir - 12.7% Ghostwriter is a project started in 2008 by Hobo Wine Co. to highlight Santa Cruz vineyards. This very aromatic Pinot has lifted notes of cranberries, strawberries and pine needles, reminiscent of walking through the California redwoods. Once the wine opens it reveals more richness, offering Bing cherries and subtle spice. A good match for grilled salmon or a rosemary mushroom pasta. $29.99

2023 Jaffurs Syrah - 14.3% Founded in Santa Barbara in the late 1990's, Jaffurs is dedicated to producing Rhône varietals with a California sense of independence. Six top sites throughout Santa Barbara County were blended and then aged in neutral oak barrels for 10 months. Crushed blackberries, black plums, cured meats and a touch of black peppercorns. A delightful wine that would be a terrific complement to lamb chops or grilled sausages. $36.99

2021 Beckmen Cabernet Sauvignon - 14.5% The Beckmen family is deeply committed to biodynamic agriculture and their winery was the first in Santa Barbara to farm following those principles. The cooler 2021 vintage brings flavors of juicy black cherries, black currants, and cocoa powder with good acid and smooth tannins. Wonderful with a burger topped in grilled onions or a ribeye brushed with fresh herbs. $36.99
